Y. W. C. A. READY FOR TO BE MADE SOON

Decision as to Winner of Times Building to Be Opened to the and Other Prizes Ready After Holidays.

Decision of the winner of The Times prize of $10 for the domestic longeste in the service of a single mistress, and of the winners of the other three prizes in the faithful domestics con-test of the District of Columbia Federation of Women's Clubs, is to made soon after New Year.

More than 300 domestics alread; are in receipt of certificates, hand-somely engraved, and bearing the federation's seal, as testimony of their service of five years or more in Five hundred more of these certifi was the hope of Mrs. J. Edson Briggs. chairman of the committee on the competition, to have them all in the hands of the domestics by Christmas. But it was found that some of them were being crushed because of the heavy Christmas mails, and it was deto hold the rest up until after the rush. Those that have been injured will be replaced. Get Letter of Greeting.

Many mistresses have neglected to end postage and the addresses to which the certificates are to be mailed. These addresses and a stamp should be forwarded at once to Mrs. J. Edson Briggs, 630 South Carolina avenue southeast.

In addition to the certificates, each of the domestics will receive a letter of greeting from Mrs. Court F. Wood, president of the federation.

800-POUND STURGEON CLARKSTON, Wash., Dec. 24.—A sturgeon eight feet long and weighing 800 pounds was caught here in Columbia river recently. A halter was made and the sturgeon staked out in CHRISTMAS PARTIES

Public at 3 o'Clock Tomorrow Afternoon.

Arrangements are the Christmas entertainment which the Y. W. C. A. will have tomorrow. The building opens to he public at o'clock and is open until late in the evening, during which time a varied program is to be presented.

The Bible Students' Club has taken over the work of providing Christmas gifts for all who attend, and the High School Alumnae Club will charge of refreshments.

Miss Katherine Raber is chairman of the entertainment committee, while Miss Ellamay Blakemore will have charge of the games. Miss Grace Bromley and Mrs. Agnes Nelson Lamb are to tell stories. The Choral Club, under the direction of Mrs. A. M. Blair, will furnish music. All lonely women and girls are vited.

OFFICIALS CAUSED RAID, SAYS LAWSON

Financier Declares Washington Authorities Were Directly Responsible for Leak.

BOSTON, Dec. 24 .- Official Washngton was directly responsible for the information which led to the bear raid on the stock market following the Wilson peace note, according to Thomas W. Lawson. Lawson and Bernard W. Baruch leaned up millions. Immediately folowing Lawson's statement came one rom Secretary Lansing, saying that his department would welcome any investigation into the alleged leak that placed the advance information in the hands of the two big operators. The State Department at the same time tried to shift the responsibility on the shoulders of newspapermen charging that several of them had re ceived information about the peace note even before Wall Street knew about It. Lawson's statement reads, in part: "Between now and New Year there will be something specific and particular happen that will make last week's eaks appear as Cupid drools to res ervoir tappings by comparison. Paste this up for future reference, or put it in your pipe and smoke it.

"There were not only leaks las week, but similar leaks in almost all mportant Washington doings, particularly Supreme Court doings, during the last twenty years, and beneficiaries of the leakings were those public guardians who how! loudest for leak investigations. What are you going to do about it?

VETERANS INSTALL HEADS

Union Soldiers' Alliance Holds Annual Reunion and Banquet. The Union Soldiers' Alliance installed newly elected officers at its annual reunion and banquet at Bausch er's last night.

John McEiroy acted as toastmaster and escorted each new officer to his chair. There were addresses from many members.

Stories of the battlefields of the civil war occupied the attention of the banqueters until a 'late hour. Many reminiscences were indulged in by the members of their experiences when the armies of the South and he North engaged.

The Union Soldiers' Alliance was organized here forty years ago, with a membership of 160. Death and sickness have cut its number down to twenty-four. Twenty of this number were present last night. Its object is to promote closer acquaintance with veterans of the war.

The newly elected officers installed are as follows: John M. Kline, presi-dent; Albert H. Van Deusen, first vice resident; Gilbert M. Husted, second vice president; John L. Heupel, secretary; Charles A. Shields, assistant sec retary, and Albion B. Jameson, treas

PERMANENT STATE SHOW HERE, IS PLAN

Efforts to Be Renewed Next Week for Exhibit With Plans for Pre-Inaugural.

With the launching next week s the active work for the pre-inaugural Government exhibit, renewed efforts also will be made to procure for Washington 'a permanent exhibit of State products. The Federation of Citizens' Associations, which is co-operating with Gov.

ernment bureaus and departments in the exhibit here in March, also has in mind, it is stated, a movement for the permanent exhibit.

Expresses Grattfication Mark A. Woodell, secretary of the States' Permanent Exposition Society, has written to Edward F. Colladay, chairman of the federation's inaugural committee, expressing gratification at the organized effort to establish a permanent exhibit here.

It is recalled that Senator Martine introduced a measure, reported favorably by the committee on industrial expositions, on the expediency of hav-ing Congress set aside lands in the District on which the States might erect exposition buildings.
